Landscape of Perception

THE MIND IS MORE THAN WHAT THE BRAIN IS UP TO; THE BODY'S ENTIRE PHYSIOLOGY, NEUROLOGY, AND HABITUATED RESPONSES CONSTITUTE TO A LARGE DEGREE THE UNCONSCIOUS SUBSTRATES OF OUR FIELD OF AWARENESS OF BOTH THE SELF AND THE WORLD THE SELF IS IMBEDDED IN.

APRIL 14TH & 15TH

with Deane Juhan

TO SAY THAT THE MIND & THE BODY ARE CONNECTED IS A SERIOUS UNDERSTATEMENT. THEIR MUTUAL PROCESSES ARE INEXTRICABLE, AND EACH OF THESE DOMAINS OF OUR BEING INTIMATELY INVOLVES THE OTHER IN MULTIPLE WAYS. FROM MOLECULES TO CELLS TO ORGANS TO OUR CONSCIOUS EMOTIONAL AND COGNITIVE EXPERIENCES.

THE MIND IS FAR MORE THAN WHAT THE BRAIN IS UP TO. ALL OF OUR PHYSIOLOGICAL PROCESSES AND OUR NEURAL EVENTS FORM THE SUBSTRATES THAT RESULT IN THE COMPLETENESS AND QUALITY OF OUR FIELD OF AWARENESS. THAT FIELD OF AWARENESS IS, IN TURN, THE FOUNDATION OF ALL OUR EXPERIENCE AND BEHAVIOR.

BOTH PSYCHOTHERAPIES AND SOMATIC THERAPIES OF ALL KINDS ARE DEEPLY ENRICHED AND MADE MORE EFFECTIVE BY THE THERAPIST'S AND THE CLIENT'S UNDERSTANDING OF THE MANY WAYS THAT THE FUNCTIONS OF THE BODY AND THE MIND INTERPENETRATE ONE ANOTHER.

BODYWORKERS LIMIT THE HEALING EFFECTIVENESS OF THEIR WORK IF THEY ARE UNABLE TO REACH THE MIND AS WELL AS THE TISSUES. ANY COMPREHENSIVE AND LASTING RECOVERY FROM TRAUMA, INJURY, CHRONIC PAIN AND DYSFUNCTIONAL HABITUATED PATTERNS OF THOUGHT OR MOVEMENT MUST ADDRESS BOTH PHYSICAL AND MENTAL PROCESSES.

Deane Juhan may be best known as the author of Job's Body: A Handbook for Bodywork an essential text on the means, methods, uses, and deeply personal applications of what has come to be known as "bodywork" First trained in Esalen massage, he developed a private practice and led workshops in massage as well as seminars in anatomy and physiology for bodyworkers. In 1976 he met Dr. Milton Trager, founder of the Trager Institute for Psychophysical Integration, and has been a practitioner and instructor of the "TRAGERWork" approach ever since. He is on the faculty of the Northern California Trager Institute and has developed a series of workshops in dynamic anatomy and in Trager Bodywork for bodyworkers and therapists of all kinds, which he conducts all over the United States, in Canada and in Europe. <http://www.jobbody.com>
